Your ONE-STOP Home Interiors Solution

A happy Molli Bryn prior to her baptism. Wearing the dress her mommy was baptized in and the cross given to her great-grandma by her great-grandpa (mommy's side) upon return from WWII.

Molli Bryn Baptism

Our first granddaughter was baptized on Sunday, February 9th in Iowa.

This blessed event was enjoyed by many relatives from both sides of Molli's family. Unfortunately, my health prevented me from being there.

Miscellaneous Update

Feeling Better ?

I thought I was feeling better when I wrote to you in last month's newsletter. My husband thinks it was just wishful thinking.

After the latest diagnosis by local doctors (blood clots...proved negative), my husband convinced me to go to Mayo Clinic in Scottsdale to see if they can figure out what's been ailing me for over three months now.

The good news - I'm not going to die. The bad news—it may take a bit longer before I feel normal. Thanks for keeping me in your prayers.

Las Vegas Trade Shows

We went to Las Vegas the first week of February for the three trade shows I mentioned in last month's newsletter. BIG MISTAKE!

I felt so poorly on the first day of the shows that I decided to stay at the hotel in the morning. Just getting ready to go to the shows in the afternoon and getting on the shuttle bus zapped my energy. I just went back to the hotel and back to bed.

My husband, rightfully, cancelled the rest of the trip for us and we came home early so I could see more doctors.

Thankfully, my husband was able to spend one day at the Kitchen & Bath Industry Show. Two of our designers, Janice and Becky, were able to spend a day at the Window Fashion Show and another day at the Kitchen & Bath Industry Show.

Some of the new and interesting things they saw are featured inside this newsletter.

A HUGE THANK YOU to all my clients that have been patient and understanding. God willing, I'll be back to normal soon. Don't worry, my wonderful staff can help you with your needs if I am not available.

Until Next Month,

Betty Jones

TRADESHOW HIGHLIGHTS

CAMBRIA QUARTZ COUNTERS

The quartz counter brand we recommend and have on display in our showroom (Made in Minnesota) showed off many new patterns and colors. It is amazing how much these quartz products look like real stone, but without the care or installation challenges of stone.

Becky & Janice accepting a drawing prize (faux fur throw) at the Anderson Fabrics booth.

Granite or Quartz?

Chiseled Edge on Cambria quartz. Your friends will swear it is granite.

2014 Newly Release - Galloway from Cambria. Real pieces of gold imbedded.

We weren't supposed to photo it, but we did anyway, so we could show you the latest and greatest.

OVER 100,000 People

Attended the week long combined trade shows for the Kitchen & Bath industry, the Home Building industry and the Window Fashion industry.

From the looks of the long lines for the hotel shuttle busses, it looked more like a million.

Under-Mount Sink for Laminate

They've solved one of the biggest complaints about laminate counters. Now you can have an under-mount sink in your laundry, garage, powder room etc.

Look Ma...NO HANDS!

Kohler has expanded their line of kitchen faucets that can be turned On/Off without touching the faucet.

Turn these On/Off just by passing your hand in front of the sensor in the spout.

Very handy when your hands are messy or full.

These can be retrofitted in existing sinks. Electrical power would be connected to the same outlet your dishwasher is connected to.

WELLNESS MATS

If you have leg health challenges, or just like to spend hours cooking, this may be perfect for you.

These cushioned floor mats will help minimize leg, foot and back fatigue.

Many colors and styles to compliment any décor.

Discreet Docking

Here is a cool new way to get rid of the clutter of recharging your phone, pod or pad.

Great idea if you are remodeling a kitchen or bath. Can be retrofitted into existing cabinetry; the electrical connection could be a little tricky on retrofits, but doable.

Many new Drapery Hardware styles and finishes were introduced at the Window Fashion show.

Just changing your drapery hardware can spruce up a room. Ask us how!
