The Joy of being a Grandparent

And the heart ache of not living closer to our grandchildren.

Our newest granddaughter was born just as last month's newsletter was going to press. So this is my first chance to brag on Maddyn Brooke Jones, born to our son Brandon and his wife Meghan on Sept. 30th.

She was named Maddyn after our son and daughter-in-law found out our

Molli's Memo

I was confused and a bit scared when I first saw my new sister, Maddyn Brooke, at the hospital. I didn't really understand what was going on.

Now that she and mommy are home, I'm having lots of fun helping take care of my baby sister.

I just realized too we have the same initials, MBJ, so we can share the same monogrammed luggage.

Showroom Manager, Amoré, named her daughter Madelyn. They didn't want to have another "madelyn" in the clan, so to speak. They were a bit dismayed when we told them we knew of several other Maddyn's. Just a funny story Maddyn can tell her children in 20—30 years.

My heart aches at times when I think about not being able to 'grandmother' our grand children. Thank God we did a good job raising our kids...they are both outstanding parents.

Until Next Month,

Betty Jones

Holiday Decorating Ideas

This month we bring you some great Thanksgiving and Christmas holiday decorating ideas.

Many of our clients aren't interested in buying "off-the-shelf" decorations they might see at their neighbor's too. They want pieces that are unique and special. Pieces that reflect their own individual tastes and style.

ASKREN & SONS

Our 15 year partner, Askren & Sons is a local wholesale floral supplier. They create one-of-a-kind floral pieces based on your vision, style and budget.

If you have an Askren & Sons floral piece, you'll never see the same piece at your neighbor's or friend's house, whether a holiday decoration, a dining room center piece, or an accent floral arrangement.

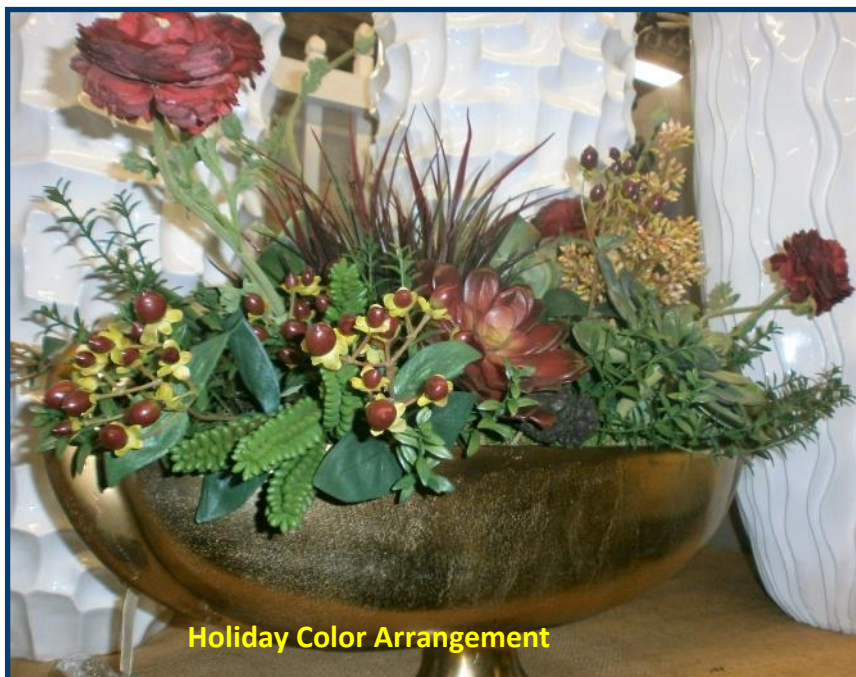

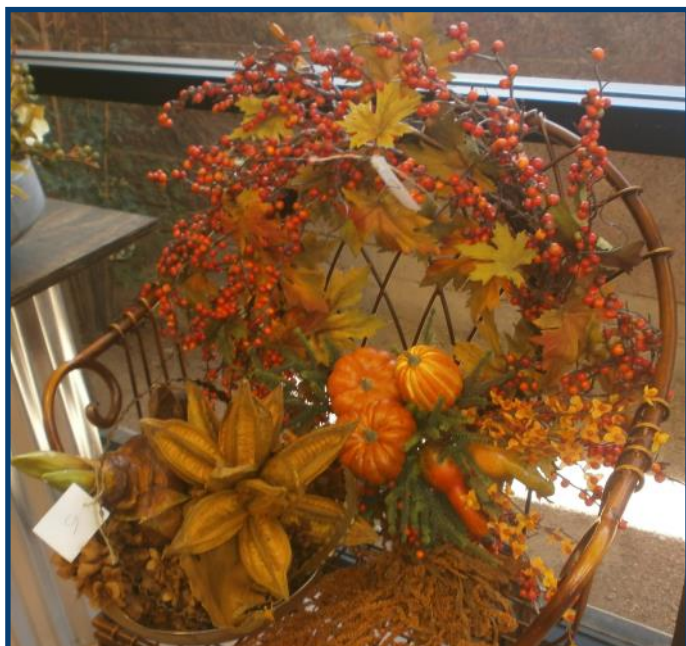

Now is the time

Now is the time to be thinking about updating or adding to your holiday decorations. Askren & Sons and Interior Expressions can help you.

Since Askren & Sons is "to the trade" only, one of our designers would go with you or meet you there to introduce you to their wonderful design staff and "translate" what you are looking for. Or as we have done often, we explain to them what you are looking for and they create pieces our clients have universally loved.

CALL TODAY...Before it is too late

As you might realize, November and December are very busy months for Askren & Sons, as they are for us. So give us a call ASAP if you want our assistance in updating or adding to your Thanksgiving or Christmas decorations.
